What is Google Scholar

- Google Scholar (GS) is a free academic search engine
- smaller subset of the pool that Google searches

- How do I search by author?
- Use the "author:" operator, e.g., author:"d knuth" or author:"donald e knuth".

- How do I search by title?
- Put the paper's title in quotations: "A History of surgery".

Why Google Scholar?

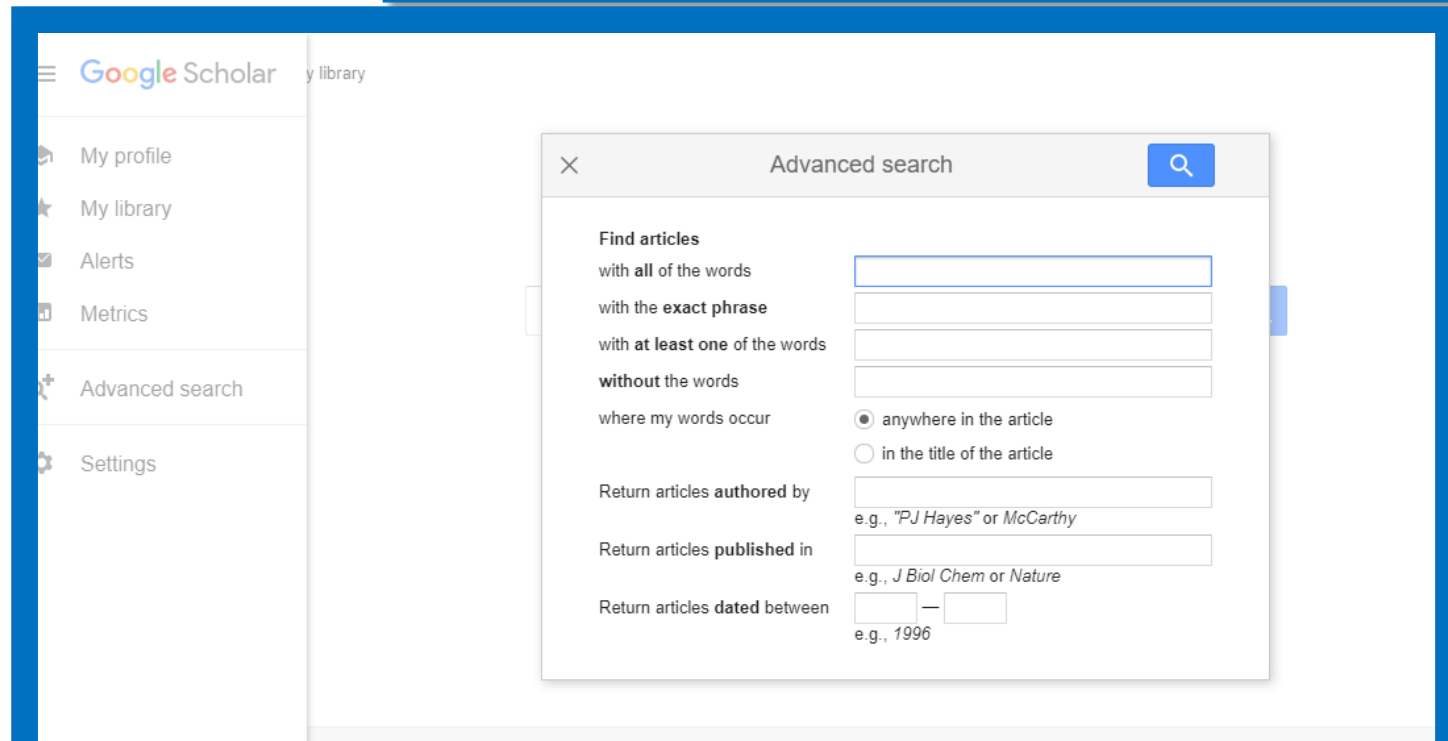

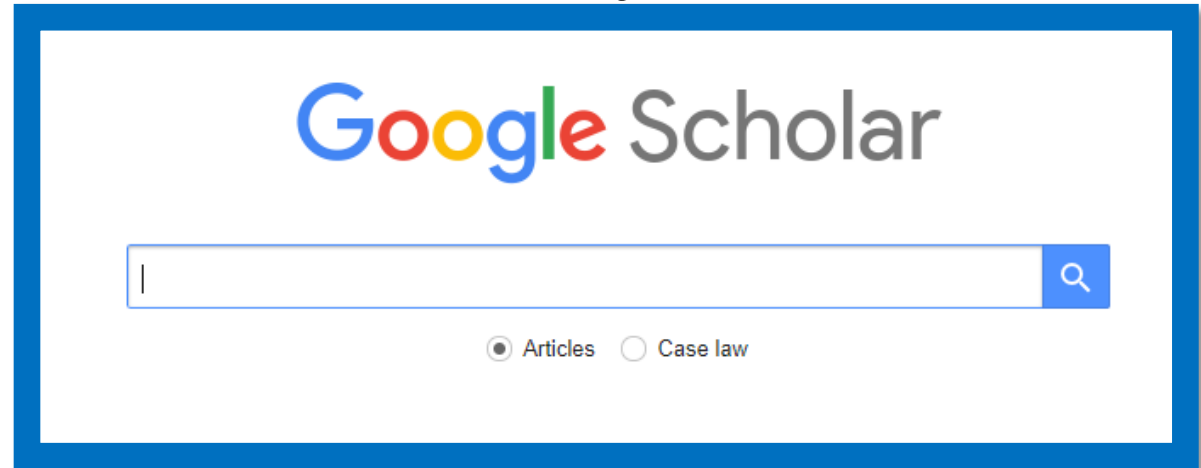

- copy a formatted citation in different styles including MLA and APA
- export bibliographic data (BibTeX, RIS) to use with reference management software
- links that let you explore which other works have cited the listed work
- links that let you easily find full text versions of the article

Although it is free to search in Google Scholar, most of the content is not freely available, but Google does its best to find copies of restricted articles in public repositories which often contain earlier drafts (preprints)

How to search a title or subject
